

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 13-10332
USDC No. 3:11-CV-1478

AUSTIN DYLAN EVERSOLE,

Petitioner-Appellant

v.

WILLIAM STEPHENS, DIRECTOR, TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE, CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTIONS DIVISION,

Respondent-Appellee

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas

ORDER:

Austin Dylan Eversole, Texas prisoner # 1626507, moves for a certificate of appealability (COA) to appeal the district court's dismissal as time barred of his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 application challenging his conviction for murder, criminal solicitation to commit capital murder, burglary of a habitation, and theft of a firearm. Eversole argues that he was entitled to statutory or equitable tolling of the limitations period. Regarding statutory tolling, he contends that the law library did not have a copy of the AEDPA and that this deficiency was a state-created impediment to the timely filing of his § 2254 application. Further, Eversole argues that the limitations period should be equitably tolled based on his age. He asserts that the limitations period should not commence to run until a minor reaches the age of 18.

To obtain a COA, Eversole must make “a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right.” 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2); Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 483-84 (2000). Where the district court has denied federal habeas relief on procedural grounds, the applicant must demonstrate that reasonable jurists would find it debatable whether the application states a valid claim of the denial of a constitutional right and whether the district court was correct in its procedural ruling. Slack, 529 U.S. at 484. Eversole has not met this standard.

His motion for a COA is DENIED.
